REDNECKS STEAL THE SHOW AT WONDERLAND ROUNDUP

Yreka – It was a great night Friday August 11th as folks from every corner of Siskiyou County gathered to witness the return of the Wonderland Distributing Redneck Roundup. More than 40 local “rednecks” entered the competition with their quads and side by side ATV’s in front of a full Scott Valley Bank Grandstand. The announcer for the evening was Robbie Munson, and it was a family affair with Preston Munson clowning in the arena and cousin Della Hayden as the official photographer for the event.

The 2017 event included 5 divisions; The Jefferson State Stampede Committee Ranch Quad Barrel Race, The Les Schwab Tire Racing Quad Barrel Race, The Advantage Paving Side by Side Race, the all new Northwest Farm Credit Quad Sled Race and the main attraction, the Sousa Ready Mix Quaderator competition. The committee added a kids boot race and a clown race to the event and both were a big hit! Winners included, Jeff Collins of Yreka for the Ranch Quads, Cole Skinner of Mt. Shasta for the Racing Quad Barrel Race and Colt Campbell of Etna for the Side by Side race. The all new Northwest Farm Credit sled race was won by Jeff Collins. In the Sousa Ready Mix Quaderator Competition the $750 winner take all purse went to Braden Whitehouse and Austin Joling. “The Stampede Committee put on a great show for our community” stated CEO, Cliff Munson, “What a great affordable event for the whole family to enjoy.” Plans are already being made for the third Red Neck Roundup at the 2018 Siskiyou Golden Fair.

The evening ended with the Jeff Collins repeating as the champion for 2017 and the Yreka native will hold that title for the next year!
