Minton & Darst Share All Around

Clint Jenner, 2018 Mini Bucker Champion

YREKA – The Mechanics Bank CCPRA Rodeo brought cowboys and cowgirls from across the west into Yreka along with Four Star Rodeo Company from Cottonwood to showcase the traditions of the American West. Four Star’s herd has some of the rankest bulls and horses in the rodeo business and on this night the livestock won more times than not! With two events without a qualified ride – bulls and broncs the all around went to timed event winners and Brushton Minton and Tanner Darst shared the title. To start the evening Ms. Riley Kutzer of Greenview gave a beautiful rendition of the National Anthem and the Mutton Bustin’ competition was won by Logan Scala who qualified at the 2017 Jefferson State Stampede. The Mt. Shasta Title and Escrow Mini Buckers was won by peewee Clint Jenner of Etna. The Tie Down Roping Champion was Brushton Minton and Saddle Bronc Champion was Laramie Collins. Breakaway was won by Courtney Wood and the Luke’s Drug Siskiyou County Saddle Cow Championship was won by Daryl Lara and Blake Shephard. In other rodeo action, Steer Wrestling was won by Tanner Darst with Craig Harrison and Tanner Darst winning the Team Roping. The 2018 Barrel Racing Champion was Susie Gunter and the Rex Club All Around was a tie between Minton and Darst.
