“HOW TO GET TO AUCTION--THE RIGHT WAY” AN EDUCATIONAL SEMINAR FOR ALL JUNIOR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS

YREKA – On March 27th Siskiyou Golden Fair junior livestock exhibitors have the opportunity to gain needed knowledge and information about getting market animals to the annual junior livestock auction using industry approved practices.

The Siskiyou Golden Fair will present “How to Get to Auction--the Right Way”. This program will include a presentation from award winning livestock judge and Sunglo Feed representative Frank Ward, Animal Health presented by Amy Fousek D.V.M and any new information about 2019 fair. This seminar will address the information needed to complete quality assurance training for all junior livestock exhibitors. The information presented will be beneficial for parents and leaders as well as the junior exhibitors and give a great overview and offer a question and answer period for exhibitors to get specific questions answered.

“We are very excited to bring this program to our junior livestock exhibitors again this year,” said fair CEO Cliff Munson. “There is so much to learn about the proper way to raise and care for project animals and we want to help the junior exhibitors as much as possible.” The program is scheduled for Wednesday, March 27th, starting at 6:00 pm in Winema Hall at the fairground. All junior livestock exhibitors who are taking animals to the 2019 fair will need to take quality assurance training – starting in 2019 it is a State requirement every year. All new junior livestock exhibitors must take the training this year.

The 2019 Siskiyou Golden Fair “160 Years of Old Fashioned Fun” will run August 7-11 in Yreka. For more information call the fair office at 530-842-2767, or e-mail at info@sisqfair.com.
